

Application Form MA Exam

To be handed in at the departmental office of Linguistics Department

1. Students wishing to graduate should submit a written request to the students' administration of the English Department. An exam is understood to be an exam which is regulated by, or in accordance with, the regulations of the Higher Education and Research Act (WHOO), and which, if passed successfully, entitles the student to a certificate as intended in this Act.
2. The request must be submitted at least 4 weeks before the date of the graduation ceremony so that the Examining Board may determine the exam result. Applicants wishing to graduate within the Research MA Linguistics Program should be officially registered at the Linguistics Department of the Leiden University.
3. Applicants must provide complete answers to all of the questions listed below, after which the form should be signed and handed to the department's Director of Studies. The Director of Studies and the secretary will check whether the applicant has fulfilled all requirements. In case no permission can be granted, the applicant is instantly notified and informed of the conditions which still remain to be met in order that s/he may be admitted to the exam at a later moment.
